IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

Judge Council Convened Term Yesterday—Grand Jury Down To Work—Submissions Entered.

Superior Court convened yesterday, Judge W. B. Council, of Hickory, presiding and Solicitor Duffy prosecuting. No cases of interest were disposed of during the day, the organization for the term having been about the most important proceeding. Judge Council stated at the close of the session yesterday that better progress would have to be made during the remainder of the term and he asked the co-operation of the attorneys to that end. Judge Council impresses one as a man of action rather than of words and he insists upon the strictest discipline and order in the court room. The present is his first term here and he is being cordially received by the court officials and members of the bar. He is one of the younger men on the bench and has a keen appreciation of the importance of dispatching business. His charge yesterday to the grand jury was regarded as a very able one, covering a wide scope of criminal law.

The term convened at 10 A. M. and of the 36 jurors drawn for the week, 30 were returned as summoned and six were not found. A grand jury was drawn as follows: Jas. S. Hooper, E. J. Littleton, Wm. C. Crow, W. F. Corbett, W. A. Whitney, A. J. Howell, Jr., Thos. W. Wood, H. W. Howell, A. A. Hergenrother, B. K. Taylor, Wm. A. Hufham, Richard D. Bloodsworth, C. J. McKeithan, C. S. Burnett, C. D. Gore, A. D. Woolard, Daniel C. Davis and James T. English. Capt. W. F. Corbett was sworn as foreman of the jury. Mr. Jordan W. Branch was sworn as bailiff of the grand jury.

The following for good and sufficient reasons, under oath, were excused: H. D. Stanland, J. M. Taylor, Julius Sternberger, Samuel T. Ashe, Geo. H. Howell, B. M. Wilson, J. W. Scott, Wm. L. Moore (until after the encampment), Wm. E. Worth (until Wednesday morning), Frank H. Hottal and G. A. Croft.

Capt. John L. Boatwright, a member of the old volunteer fire department, failed to answer, claiming the exemption as a firemen, notwithstanding the repeal of the law granting the exemption. The case is made a test one and will probably be taken up to the Supreme Court for a final decision. Capt. Boatwright is represented by Messrs. Davis & Davis, who have been employed by the organization of volunteer firemen to resist the repeal.

The court ordered the sheriff to call in 24 jurors for the day and ordered under the act of 1885, that 24 jurors be drawn from the box each day as long as necessary.

Isaiah Donaldson, the colored boy, who robbed the cash drawer in Mr. J. A. Montgomery's store about ten days ago, submitted to larceny and was given four months on the county roads. He gave his age as 14 years.

Ed. Suggs, a negro from the sound, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon and forcible trepass, was found not guilty and discharged.

Chas. Jones, the negro who stole a pair of pants from Mr. R. F. Hamme Saturday night two weeks ago, and who was captured by Mr. Hamme after an exciting chase, submitted to larceny and was given one year on the roads.

The case of the colored preacher, J. Henry Rhoe, charged with criminal intimacy with a female member of his congregation, was continued until the September term.

Jessie Jones, the young white man charged with deporting cotton mill labor to Darlington, S. C., without paying the license imposed on emigration agents, was called and failed. Mr. H. C. Bear, upon assurances from the Darlington mills, is on Jones' bond for $250.

The case against "Jimmy" Burns, the Federal prisoner charged with jail breaking, was nol prossed with leave, Burns has since been tried in the U. S. Court and sentenced to the Atlanta prison.

When court took a recess at 6 P. M. until 9:30 o'clock this morning, a jury was being selected to try the case of Chas. Michaelis, against whom the grand jury several terms ago made a presentment for conducting a disorderly place at Front and Dawson streets, where the defendant had a store. The presentment grew out of the shooting of young Ramsey and Rising there by a crowd of negroes, following which there was threatened mob violence. Michaelis is being represented by Herbert McClammy and Marsden Bellamy, Esqs. Nine of the jury had been passed upon by both sides when court took a recess for the day and the case will be resumed this morning.

DAYS AT CAMP GLENN

GREAT CROWDS ON SUNDAY

Visitors From Everywhere Dotted the Tented City—Soldiers Get Their Money To-day—Camp Llife Is Too Short For Results.

Sunday and yesterday were days fraught with much interest for the soldiers in Camp Glenn at Wrightsville. There were thousands of visitors there during Sunday. Many went down from Wilmington; hundred flocked over from the beach and still others came from interior towns and cities to pay a visit to their "home company" and see how they were deporting themselves on the field in comparison with the other men of the Guard. Dress parade in the afternoon was witnessed by an immense throng of spectators who were enthusiastic in their admiration of the brilliant and inspiring spectacle. A thunder and rain storm rather interfered with the routine of camp life early yesterday afternoon but the boys are "roughing it" and little they seemed to care for the disturbance of the elements.

The important feature of yesterday in camp was a conference between Governor Glenn, members of his staff and officers of the brigade. It was to determine the advisability of a permanent camp site for the annual encampment of the entire North Carolina National Guard. It was the unanimous opinion of the officers that a permanent site be selected. The question of location was not settled. The matter will be left to a committee to be appointed by the Governor later. The committee will visit the various sites offered and upon the committee's recommendation the Governor will designate the permanent grounds.

Yesterday morning Governor Glenn and members of his personal staff reached the camp under the same special escort of last Saturday when he visited the camp to review the troops.

Inspection of the Camp.

At 10 o'clock Governor Glenn, accompanied by the members of his personal staff present, General Armfield and Major Hackney of brigade headquarters, inspected the camp. They went through all the tents, mess halls, and hospital and visited the rifle range. While inspecting the Third Regiment, the party was joined by Colonel Craig, commanding and at the Second by Colonel Bragaw.

The Governor expressed himself as being delighted at the result of the inspection. He stated that he found everything neat and orderly and the camp generally in a clean and fine condition. He said that he regretted that the encampment could not continue for ten days, as the encampment is nearly over by the time the men get in good shape for effective camp work. A longer term for the encampment would do much to improve the State Guard.

The Permanent Site.

At 11 o'clock the officers of the brigade presided over by General Armfield met with the Governor according to previous announcement to discuss the matter of a permanent camp site for the State Guard. Governor Glenn addressed the officers expressing his satisfaction at meeting them and expressed his delight at the result of his inspection of the camp. He referred to his deep interest in the State Guard and stated that for eight years he was captain of the Winston company and later major for twelve months. He stated that while in office that he intended to do everything possible for the boys that he could get the Legislature to do.

He then came down to the question of a permanent camp site and stated that while he had the authority to settle the matter yet he wanted to do what the officers wished in the matter. He said that his idea was to appoint a committee of five or seven to recommend a site, men not interested in any place in the contest. He spoke of the advantages of the permanent camp site—that it would give the boys a longer encampment and save the Guard money. He mentioned States which had permanent camps and there he said you would find the better State Guard.

There was much discussion about where the camp site should be located but it was the sense of the officers that the matter could be better handled by the committee and should be left to them.

The Governor stated that he expected to appoint on the the committee a brigadier general, two colonels, a representative from the Medical Department and the chief engineer. The Governor will visit the encampment at Charlotte and get an expression from the officers there as to the permanent encampment.

The brigade will be formed and in regular order the men will pass by headquarters and receive their money. This will be an interesting sight, but of small moment to the boys, the privates, as they only receive $2.15 for the five days in camp.

Some Camp Notes.

Inspector General T. H. Bain was a visitor at Camp Glenn yesterday. He was present with the officers during the morning in their council with the Governor.

Capt. J. W. Forbes, Co. A, Tarboro, left yesterday for Binghampton, N. Y., on a ten days furlough. Lieut. F. N. Carlyle is now in command of the company.

Governor Glenn, Col. Chas. E. Johnson and General Robertson took a shot at the target yesterday morning. The Governor made the best score.

Co. E, Oxford, Capt. W. A. Devin; Co. I, Edenton, Capt. R. N. Hines, Third Regiment; headed by the Third Regiment Band acted as special escort to the Governor yesterday morning from Wrightsville to the camp. The detail was the same as escorted the Governor Saturday last, and was under command of Lieut. Col. T. C. James, a most efficient officer, and one of the most popular in camp. He is every inch a soldier, soldierly in his bearing, cordial and courteous.

Major Brooks held a school of instruction at brigade hospital yesterday morning at 7:45 and yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock a drill was held under command of Major Holmes. The hospital is finely located and is in fine condition. Major Brooks and Major Holmes are two highly efficient officers and splendid work has been done by the corps during the encampment.

The First Battalion of the Third Regiment under Maj. C. L. McGhee, is a fine body of soldiers. An officer of the personal staff of the Governor said that the personnel of the men was unsurpassed and that they were among the best behaved men in camp. The companies are composed mostly of country boys. Being the ranking battalion it takes the lead in all reviews and brigade manoeuvres. Major McGhee is a very fine officer and is to be congratulated upon having a particularly fine battalion. The battalion is composed of Co. F. Franklinton, Capt. I. H. Kearney; Co. E, Oxford, Capt. W. A. Devin; Co. C, Henderson, Capt. W. K. Sturgis; Co. H. Warrenton, Capt. Phil Macon (formerly Lieutenant General, First Regiment). This battalion, it is said, has furnished more officers to the general staff than any other in the State, it furnished Gen. B. S. Royster, Gen. Macon, Col. W. L. McGhee, Col. Landis, Col. W. E. Gary, Maj. W. E. Massenburg, Col. F. P. Hobgood and Col. S. W. Minor.

Capt. W. A. Devin, of Co. E, Oxford, is an officer that is an especially attractive one. He has all the qualities of a good soldier and is greatly beloved by the members of his company. He is a valuable man to the State Guard.

Dinner to the Governor.

The dinner given to Governor Glenn and his personal staff and the brigade officers at the Tarrymoore Hotel Sunday, was a most delightful occasion. The 400 guests were served with the same superb dinner that was furnished the invited guests. The Governor's party occupied a table at the head of the dining room. The table was brightened by the lavish use of cut flowers.

Hon. Geo. E. Wilson, of Charlotte, on behalf of Proprietor Moore, welcomed the Governor and his party. The Governor replied and expressed thanks for himself and staff for the honor which had been bestowed on them. The following composed the Governor's party: General Armfield, General Robertson, who sat at the head of the table on either side of the Governor; General Macon, Col. Charles E. Johnson, Col. Ludlow, Captain Davidson, Col. Wescott Robertson, General Glenn, Colonel Minor, Major Massenburg, Major Johnson, Colonel Peterson and Colonel Gary. The Governor was delighted with his reception at the Tarrymoore and highly complimented the dinner which he said he so thoroughly enjoyed.

Some Random Jottings.

Commissary Sergeant Sam King, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, received a painful cut in the palm of the hand Saturday. For the amusement of the street, he was doing a juggling act with some bottles found "down on the sound somewhere." While he had three or four of the bottles in the air and was giving Magician Hermann cards and spades and beating him, two of the bottles being used in the act came together in the air and broke. The ragged bottom of one of the broken ones came down in the juggler's hand, laying open an ugly gash which necessitated Sergeant King's going to the hospital tent.

The Second Regiment Band, though not so large as that of the Third Regiment, is a splendid one and is easily the favorite at dress parade and reviews. It comes from Tarboro with Company A., and is composed of fine musicians, who know just how to jingle off the music suited to encampment life.

The W. L. I. is color company for the Second Regiment and is worthy of that distinction in every way. It is not only one of the largest companies in camp but the best drilled. Captain Robertson and Lieutenants Hatch and Orrell are capable officers and the discipline of their men and their soldiery bearing is frequently

MILITARY BANQUET

MANY FINE ADDRESSES MADE

Toastmaster, and Other Distinguished Men Were Speakers—Menu a Tempting One—Music By Second Regiment Band.

The banquet given last night at the Seashore Hotel in honor of Governor R. B. Glenn and the distinguished military in attendance upon the annual encampment of the Second and Third Regiments of the North Carolina National Guard at Summer Rest, was truly a very magnificent affair, eclipsing by far, it is said, anything ever given at a seaside resort in the State. It was under the auspices of the Wilmington Merchants' Association and local officers of the National Guard, the committee in especial charge of the arrangements having been Mr. L. B. Rogers, Mr. John H. Rehder and Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, who acquitted themselves with singular credit in the really brilliant function they prepared.

Col. A. M. Waddell, Wilmington's distinguished Mayor and a genius as a presiding officer, whether it be over a deliberative body or a convivial assembly, his speech bright and scintillating with wit and repartee, was toastmaster of the occasion, most happily serving in that exacting position with becoming ease and dignity. The responses were as follows, all of them having been in exceedingly good taste and provocative of the greatest enthusiasm and the warmest applause:

"Wilmington as a Commercial Centre," by Mr. J. Allen Taylor, president of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce.

"North Carolina National Guard," by Adjutant General T. R. Robertson, N. C. N. G., of Charlotte.

"The Merchants' Association," by President W. B. Cooper.

"The Regimental Commander," by Lieutenant Colonel S. W. Minor, of Oxford, N. C.

"The High Private in Rear Ranks," by Captain Geo. E. Hood, Mayor of Goldsboro and commanding Company E, Second Regiment, N. C. N. G.

"The Press—Our Sentinel Upon the Watchtower," by Dr. T. B. Kingsbury.

"Wrightsville Beach, the Future Coney Island of the South," by Mayor John A. Arringdale, of the town of Wrightsville Beach.

"The Seaport City of the Old North State and its Varied Industries," by Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, editor of the Fruit and Truck Growers' Journal.

"The Visitors Within Our Gates," by Hon. George E. Wilson, of Charlotte.

The personnel of the body was perhaps the most distinguished ever assembled at the beach. Covers were laid for considerably more than a hundred, and it was long past midnight that the doors of the spacious dining room of the hotel, ablaze with light and tastefully decorated with National colors, flowers and evergreens, swung open and the banqueters retired.

The menu embraced delicacies fit for the gods, the banquet having been served by Manager Hinton of the hotel, in that peculiarly delightful fashion and bounty that have made his hostelry famous the country over. Elegantly embossed cards, tied with silk cords, announced the speakers and the menu, which was as follows:

Salted Almonds Native Celery
Boiled Spanish Mackerel
Pommer Julienne
Olives Gerkins
Soft Shell Crabs on Toast.
Chilled Tomatoes Iced Cucumbers
Deviled Crabs in Cases
Shrimp Potato Salad
Mayoniase Dressing
Cream De'menthe Punch
Wafers Coffee
Fruit
Champagne Cigars
Cigarettes.

The address by Governor Glenn, "The Old North State," was broad-guaged, eloquent, patriotic. It made the bosoms of those before him swell with pride of their State and their Governor. "Wilmington as a Commercial Centre,' by Mr. Taylor appropriately followed what His Excellency said of the State. The other addresses were also strong and particularly pleasing as to whatever subjects were treated.

Special cars were kept in waiting at the hotel bringing home this morning the large party of Wilmington business men, who went down to the beach for the occasion. The visting military are largely guests at the hotels on the beach.

Excellent music for the banquet was discoursed by the Second Regiment Band, from Camp Glenn.

To Visit Southport.

Mr. Robert C. Hood and Mr. M. C. Guthrie, of Southport, came up to Wilmington Saturday and invited Governor Glenn to visit their town on Tuesday. The Governor accepted the invitation and the steam tug Blanche has been engaged to take the party down the river to-day. Mr. Hood came up yesterday, attended the banquet last night and will accompany the Governor and party to Southport, leaving the city at 9:15 o'clock this morning. The Governor has never been down the Cape Fear river and the various points of interest will be pointed out to him. The party will cross the bar and also land at Fort Caswell. Dinner will be served at Southport and a reception held in the pavilion in the afternoon.

From the 21st to the 26th inclusive, an extra freight trip will be run leaving Front and Princess at 6:30 A. M. Freight will be received only at that point. jy 21-3t

VIOLENT ELECTRIC STORM

Two-Thirds of Street Car Equipment Disabled—Delays on Suburban Line—Deluge of Rain.

A rain and electric storm of considerable violence passed over the city yesterday afternoon a litle after 2 o'clock. A perfect deluge of rain fell within a few minutes and the lightning was exceedingly sharp, flash after flash, accompanied by deafening thunder, having startled the population for miles around. The official record of the rainfall was a little less than an inch but it fell so quickly that gutters were filled to overflowing and the paved streets presented the appearance of miniature rivers.

Six of the nine city street cars were put out of commission by the lightning in a few minutes, an armature under each having been burned out, in consequence of which the six had to be sent to the shops, leaving only three cars to take care of the traffic on the city line. After 5 o'clock and until this morning at 11 o'clock the city cars will have to be run on a 20-minute schedule instead of every ten minutes as usual. The entire Consolidated force of electricians was kept at work all last night in order to get the cars in readiness for the regular schedule by 11 A. M. to-day.

Suburban Car No. 31, while returning from the beach in charge of Motorman Wilson and Conductor Harrell, during the storm, was burned out in front of the telephone station on the beach and had to be brought up to the shops. Other cars on the line were temporarily disabled, but all were able to resume the schedule later in the afternoon. A party of about 20 Atlanta people returning from the beach to catch the Seaboard Air Line train for home, were delayed on the disabled cars and will have to remain over for the return until to-day. Arrangements were made to extend the week-end tickets, vold after yesterday, for another day.

During the storm lightning struck the flag on top of the Custom House, tearing it into shreds and splintering the pole. Several electric light poles at Front and Castle streets were felled, but otherwise there was little if any damage, the telephone, telegraph and fire alarm systems having escaped almost entirely.

The storm on the beach and sound was also severe and was accompanied by much wind. Several of the officer's tents on the camp grounds were blown down. The movig picture show tent at Lumina was razed to the ground.

JOHN BARRY AND JOHN PAUL JONES.

All Americans who have read of the dashing career of John Paul Jones and been thrilled by his ability and daring as a mariner and his fame as a sea fighter, are not willing that aught should be said to detract from his achievements. John Paul Jones will ever be admired as a great sea fighter and will go down in history as one of America's great naval heroes, but shall the present circumstances of the bringing home of his ashes he made the occasion of falsifying history? The pomp and circumstance attending the return of the remains of the hero may mislead many, but while nothing should be allowed to take away any of his glory, there are some things that Americans now and their posterity should have settled in the light of history.

Was John Paul Jones the founder of the American navy? There is no doubt that he added to the renown of the navy in the Revolution, but do not the hero's letters show that our naval establishment had a beginning before he became such a prominent figure in it? This much leads us up to a communication from James Fitzgerald, of New York, who has something valuable to say in the New York Times of Sunday. He writes:

"The personal achievements of John Paul Jones constitute the basis of his imperishable fame and entitle his memory to the highest honors within the power of our people for all time to confer. The recital of his heroic deeds must ever thrill us with pride, and no manifestation of popular gratitude can outmeasure the value of his splendid services to our beloved country. No borrowed plumes are necessary, no padding required for his proud record. But as a matter of fact he was neither the father nor the founder of our navy, and I might add that those expressions father and founder are being somewhat confusingly applied; they are interchangeable terms, and the use of the word founder is inexcusable or worse when the right to be styled father does not exist.

"John Barry was appointed to the command of the first armed vessel of the colonies, the Lexington, December 7, 1775. Paul Jones was appointed Lieutenant on the same day, and did not receive a Captain's commission until June 14, 1777. Barry captured the first British prize upon the ocean, the ship Edward. He served throughout the entire period of the Revolution under orders of the Continental Congress and fought the last naval battle of the war, winning the final victory on the sea by defeating the Sybille. In 1783 he was the senior commander of all American war vessels, his flag flying on the Alliance, the last vessel owned by the united colonies, until she was put out of commission and sold.

"When subsequently, and in brighter days, the Congress of the United States decided upon the establishment of a permanent navy, Barry was the first to receive a Captain's commission. Upon the face of this historic document was inscribed "Number One," and the signature at the end is that of George Washington, as President of the United States. He was assigned to superintend the construction of the first warship of our National navy as to-day organized, and his pennant was hoisted upon this frigate (the United States) immediately upon her being put in commission.

"The hero whose precious remains are now approaching our shores was a most distinguished son of our infant navy, but he was not its father or its founder. The honor of being the father of the American Navy belongs to John Barry. The archives of the Continental Congress and of the Congress of the United States prove his title to be so designated to an absolute demonstration. It is certified under the seal of the Union and attested by the signature of Washington. To attempt to ignore his claims by any one or upon any pretext is unfair and unAmerican.

"As President of an ancient and patriotic society, the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, of which Capt. Barry was long a member, I feel called upon, in justice to his memory, to write this letter, which I take the liberty of asking you to publish in that spirit of fairness at all times characteristic of the American press."

Mr. Fitzgerald appears to have made out a good case and the record should be kept straight.

AMERICAN ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE.

Lelie's Monthly Magazine for August is out. It is the "Fiction Number" of that popular publication and it is handsome as to get up and thoroughly entertaining as to matter. The feature of the number is delightful and entertaining stories and novelettes, but there are many contributions on practical matters. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson contributes a story, "The Cat and the Countess" (illustrated), and "Vagaries of Insurance" is the subject treated by Willard Helburn. There is a story by Arthur Stanford Pier, who writes of "Common Business Honesty," and Henry Kitchell Webster writes of "Labor Leaders and Where They Are Leading" (with portraits.) There are numerous contributions equally worthy of mention, but the magazine has to be read to be fully appreciated.

This well established magazine is to change its name with the September number. It is to be here after called the "American Illustrated Magazine." The publishers in the present number announce their high ideals and ambitous plans for the future, and the splendid achievements of the publishers with the publication as they have been presenting it to a half million or more of readers is a guarantee of the great place it is to occupy in American literature in the future. Subscription price $1; 10 cents a copy. Address Colver Publishing Home, 141-147 Fifth Avenue, New York.

—In a certain West Virginia town is a mayor who has distinguished himself. An Italian committed suicide by drowning. A reward of $50 was offered for his body, which was found. Of the $130 in the dead man's pocket the finder received the reward, and the mayor confiscated the rest as a fine because the italian had broken the law by committing suicide. The dead man's father protested, and the mayor fined him $17 for contempt of court.—Judge.

TWINKLINGS.

—Senator Clary, of Montana, is to pay the expenses of an expedition which is to explore the unknown mountain regions of the West. It will be a surprise to the country if there is any region out there which the land grabbers have not already explored and filed claims upon.—Washington Post.

—The policy of rotation in office is good for this one reason if for no other, viz: notice is served in advance upon the officeholders that the offices belong to the people and not to them. In a great majority of cases persons are reconciled to the situation and retire with good grace, where otherwise indifference to the party's welfare follows.—Salisbury Post.

—What a great country this is! While people are dying from heat in the big cities of the North, the snow lies three feet deep in Yellowstone Park and the temperature there hovers around the 30-degree mark. The snow is piled high against the window of the office of the weather forecaster in the Grand Canyon Hotel and the landscape has a midwinter appearance.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—First, Hammonds was to be hanged in public; then it was to be a private execution; now a respite has been granted and efforts will be made to commute the sentence to life imprisonment. If Hammonds is hanged in Forsyth county it will surprise a lot of folks. Certainly, capital punishment is not relished in North Carolina and, for our part, we have no criticism of this to offer.—Winston-Salem Journal.

—Caesar Young and Nan Patterson were prominent figures at the race track. Their betting was interrupted by Young's death and her subsequent trial for murder. But the woman is not to be suppressed. She has again made her appearance at the track and is betting on the races with her usual old-time spirit. This conduct on her part marks her as even a worse woman than the general public had thought her to be.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—The board of visitors of the University of Virginia has elected Dr. Bruce R. Payne, professor of secondary education. Dr. Payne is a native of North Carolina, having been born in Burke county. The date does not appear, but may be inferred approximately from the fact that he graduated from Trinity College in 1896. He has been a dilligent student and earnest worker, hence his rise has been rapid. North Carolina has been deprived of his services, but that is in line with familiar experience. The University of Virginia borrowed its president from North Carolina.—Raleigh Post.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 24.—There was an advance of about $2 a bale in the cotton market to-day accompanied by considerable activity, and the big bull leader forced the covering of smaller shorts, which were apprehensive of crop damage owing to rain in the western and central belts. The opening was firm at an advance of 16 to 20 points in response to the rain news and higher cables. At first the market met with considerable opposition. There was selling by wire houses with Southern connections, also by spot houses, and some of the larger professionals seemed to be putting out additional lines of short contracts on a scale up. The early map showed heavy rains at only two or three points in the belt, and while private reports claimed heavy precipitation over more important areas, smaller bulls showed hesitation pending official confirmation of the more general wet weather and prices during the morning were somewhat irregular. Selling some 5 or 6 points off from the early bulge, they rallied again however, and in the afternoon the market was generally strong on partial confirmation of the wet weather news by government reports and rumors that a firm had issued a crop condition report pointing to a yield of not ocer 9,500,000 bales. The close was 4 or 5 points from the top, under realizing, but steady in tone at a net advance of 32 to 39 points. Sales were estimated at 500,000 bales.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Chicago, July 24.—A break of 5 5-8 a bushel in the price of wheat for July delivery, occurred here to-day. At the same time the September option sold off, 3 3-8@3 1-2. Denial of sensational reports of black rust damage to the spring sown crop, caused the heavy profit-taking that resulted in the sharp declines. ACT QUICKLY

DELAY HAS BEEN DANGEROUS IN WILMINGTON.

Do the right thing at the right time.
Act quickly in times of danger.
Backache is kidney danger.
Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly.
Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this.

R. A. Biddle, clerk at 19 Market street, residing at 606 Castle street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills myself for kidney trouble and my wife who also suffered from backache also used them. I never knew anything to act so quickly. I have suffered quite a long time with my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were very dark and full of sediment. My wife also complained of her back, and when we read of Doan's Kidney Pills in our newspapers I went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. We used them with the best results. In my case the kidney secretions cleared up and the pains left my back. We have neither of us complained since taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and it is with pleasure that I recommend them at every opportunity."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—A fearful hail and wind storm struck the Thomasville orphanage at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, doing damage to the grove and some outbuildings. The vegetables and the pea crop are almost etirely demolished. The corn crop suffered less, the damage being about 75 per cent.

Mr. Charles A. Bird, of Marion, a brother of Attorney J. L. C. Bird, was instantly killed by an excursion train Saturday near Eberman. Mr. Bird has recently become deaf and did not hear the approaching train, which struck him, cutting his legs off. He is of a prominent family of his county.

—Raleigh News and Observer: A casual glance through an old Revolutionary War record yesterday revealed a petition to the governor from the State Legislature for the pardon of a murderer on these grounds: "It hath been represented to this body that he (the murderer) cometh of a reputable family."

—Saturday afternoon when westwestbound freight No. 75, was between Cleveland and Statesville, E. McLain, colored, shot John Woodruff, also colored, the ball entering his left forearm near the elbow. Both were brakemen on the train. After he was shot Woodruff jumped from the train and struck on his head, receiving severe injuries.

—Charlotte Observer: The plan of the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad to build a bridge two and a half miles long across Newport river to connect Morehead and Beaufort, is no small undertaking. The cost is estimated at $200,000, and it will be an important development. Rather strange to say, there has been no opposition offered to the construction of the bridge.

—A. J. Parker, a mining engineer of Cleveland, O., was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning at Whitney, fifteen miles south of Salisbury, late Saturday afternoon. Mr. Parker, who was also an electrician, had completed an electrical plant for the Whitney Reduction Company at the narrows on the Yadkin river. At the time of the unfortunate occurrence, he was mounting a horse, which was instantly killed. The body has been shipped to Cleveland.

—Roanoke-Chowan Times: Last Fall, along in November, one of our Rich Square farmers put out his stable manure in the drill for the next crop of cotton. A row was opened between the old cotton rows, even before all the crop for that year was gathered. Early this Spring more manure was put out in the same field in the same way. The cotton on the land manured last Fall appears to be fully twenty-five cent. better than that manured in the spring. It is larger, has a better crop, and did not suffer from the excessive rains of the past three weeks. In fact, the crops on good land do not seem to be so easily damaged by water, as crops on poor land manured with commercial fertilizer alone.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Deputy United States Marshall J. T. Sharpe, who returned to the city yesterday evening, took from Lumberton to Spartanburg, S. C., a prisoner who appears to have been quite an extensive postoffice robber. He is known by the name of Thomas Lacy and a strig of aliases. He was wanted f robbing postoffices in South Car and was caught a few month near Lumberton. It seems tha quite a number of other characters were noticed c alongside the railroad f from Lumberton. A ra on the camp, and all es Lacy. Deputy Sharpe w carry him to Spartanb .

The target practice for the regiments this year has been of lasting benefit to the men. This department is in charge of Col. C. H. White, assistant inspector of small arms practice; a fine soldier and a gentleman of the first rank. He understands his work and is a militarian of high efficiency. His duties this week have been especially arduous in order that all the companies may have a turn on the range before the encampment is over.

Religious services were conducted in camp Sunday by the Rev. Nathaniel Harding, chaplain of the Second Regiment, at regimental headquarters, and for the Third Regiment by Rev. A. McCullen, chaplain of the Regiment. The services were largely attended by the officers and men of both commands. A select male quartette from the Wilson company furnished music for the Second Regiment services and the Acme Quartette of Wilmington sang for the services by Rev. Mr. McCullen.

Company E, Third Regiment, of Goldsboro, is known as "The Original." It was organized in 1857 and served in the late "little brush" with Spain as Co. B, First Regiment, Col. T. H. Bain, now inspector general, captain commanding. Lieut. Wm. H. Suggs was in the company during the Civil War, having been stationed at Fort Macon in the 27th. N. C. Regiment. The company is commanded in camp this year by Capt. Geo. E. Hood, mayor of Goldsboro and a prominent member of the Jr. O. U. A. M. in the State. The first and second lieutenants respectively, are John A. Doughtery and Ed. H. Bain; first sergeant, J. W. Bizzell; quartermaster sergeant, J. W. Sadler; second sergeant, W. C. Suggs; third, L. R. PEACE NEGOTIATIONS NOT VERY HOPEFUL

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Berlin, July 24.—The foreign office here is advised that a meeting between Emperor William and Emperor Nicholas took place early to-day off the Swedish coast, near the island of Bjoerkoe.

Emperor Nicholas wrote to Emperor William several days ago that if during the latter's yatching in the Baltic he would approach the Russian shore he (Emperor Nicholas) would be pleased to meet him. The German Emperor replied that he would be glad to cruise to any convenient point and the Island of Bjoerkoe was suggested. It was understood that the conversation was to be entirely personal and intimate and therefore no minister from either government was to be present, although the Russian Minister of Marine is in Emperor Nicholas' suite. The meeting is a sequence to the correspondence that has been going on between the two emperors concerning peace, in which Emperor William urged Emperor Nicholas to take steps towards peace. Emperor William was then co-operating with President Roosevelt in seeking to bring the belligerents to a discussion of the terms of peace, and in the present meeting the Associated Press is authoritatively informed Emperor William will continue to advise peace, should the Russian Emperor ask for his further views, and it would be very natural that Emperor Nicholas should do so as a development of the correspondence which has already taken place.

Emperor William went to the meeting, as the Associated Press is officially informed, prepared to say if he were asked what he thought Emperor Nicholas could attain a full understanding and reconciliation with the discontented portions of his people only through reforms. The German government is interested in having the neighboring country peaceful and prosperous, for it is toward the Russian Empire that Germany's manufacturers look for great trade expansion in the future.

The Czar Back Home.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—Emperor Nicholas has returned to Peterhof.

Not Hopeful of Peace.

Chicago, July 24.—Baron Komura, apanese minister of foreign affairs and plenipotentiary in the pending peace negotiations with Russian, arrived in Chicago to-day from St. Paul on the Burlington limited. Delegations were on hand to greet the visitors. The party remained in Chicago one hour, leaving by the Pennsylvania special, the 18-hour train for New York. Baron Komura authorized the following statement:

"At New York, we shall meet Minister Takahira from whom we expect to have word from President Roosevelt, inviting us to call either at Oyster Bay or Washington. We desire peace, yet are not over-anxious, nor are we over sanguine that the negotiations will be productive. A Japanese protectorate over Korea will open the way for Japanese immigration and divert it from this country."

Desperate Battle On.

London, July 24.—A news agency dispatch yesterday says that a desperate fight for the possession of Tumen Pass is progressing. Thirty thousand Japanese under Gen. Hasegawa are impetuously attacking the Russians. Four bayonet charges have been already repulsed, with terrible slaughter. The Russians are still stubbornly holding their ground. Before the engagement became general the Japanese attacked a Russian position fifteen miles below Kaikjond at 9 o'clock at night. The Russians held them at bay until midnight, when they were forced to fall back on their main body. They retired in good order, saving all their guns and losing, so far as known, thirteen killed and forty-seven wounded. There is no confirmation of the foregoing, but the latest unofficial telegrams from Tokyo suggest the imminence of fighting at Tumen Pass.

DOCKERY OUT OF DANGER.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 24.—On a sworn statement by Dr. H. A. Royster that Jno. C. Dockery is no longer in danger of death from two bullet wounds inflicted by Policeman I. W. Rogers, the latter was admitted to bail this evening in the sum of $5,000. On motion of the prosecution there was an amendment to the warrant so that Rogers is charged with secret assault with a deadly weapon with the intent to kill. As the warrant was first drawn, since Dockery has passed the danger of dying, the only charge that stood in the original warrant was assault with a deadly weapon. The defence announced that they propose at the trial to prove that Rogers shot Dockery in self defence after the latter had drawn his revolver and declared his intention to kill Rogers. The prosecution insist on the other hand that Rogers waylaid Dockery at the head of the Tucker building stairs and shot him from ambush behind the banister post. Rogers shot Dockery June 24th because he believed him responsible for the ruin of his daughter.

POLICEMEN SHUT OUT.

Governor Fold's 75 Could Do Nothing at The Races.

By Wire to The Morning Star

St. Louis, July 22.—Under order of Covernor Joseph W. Folk, Seventy-five policemen under command of Chief Kiely, of St. Louis, went to the Delmar Race Track just outside the city limits, to stop gambling on the races. The policemen were not admitted by the track owners so they camped outside the fence. The Chief of Police, Police Commissioner and Chief of Detectives Desmond bought tickets and watched the races. After the last race, the officers joined the men outside and returned to St. Louis. No arrests were made. The police officers and the track managers held a private meeting at the track.

COTTON BROKERS ARE TO TESTIFY

A SENSATION IS PROMISED

Dark Hints That New York Cotton Men Have Exposures to Make—June Acreage Report May be Revised.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, July 24.—The investigation of the leakage of the cotton reports of the Department of Agriculture was begun today by the Federal grand jury. In accordance with the call of District Attorney Beach the jury assembled at 11 o'clock and promptly entered upon the work before it. As Mr. Beach entered the room he declined to express an opinion as to how long the inquiry would continue, to state how many witnesses would be called, or to give any information whatever except that he would personally conduct the investigation. There was no witness present when the jury was called to order.

Sensation Promised.

New York, July 24.—Subpoenas requiring the presence of several local cotton brokers before a Federal grand jury in Washington where the Federal authorities are making an investigation of the cotton report scandal, were served in this city today. More subpoenas are in the hands of the Federal officers here and they will be served as soon as the persons named in them can be located. The attendance named in the subpoenas is required in Washington before the end of the present month.

A Federal official here said today that all the men upon whom subpoenas have been served have made statements, both signed and sworn, in which they tell all they know of the so-called cotton scandals. It was upon these statements, forwarded to Washington, that District Attorney Beach caused the subpoenas to be issued.

When, where and before whom the statements were made, could not be learned.

"We have ascertained enough," said the official, who declined to permit the use of his name, "to justify Mr. Beach in instituting the proceedings already begun by him in Washington. That the disclosures to follow will be in the nature of a surprise goes without saying."

Revised June Cotton Report.

Washington, July 24.—The delegation from the American Cotton Manufacturing Association appointed at the recent meeting at Charlotte, N. C., to take up with Secretary Wilson the question of issuing a new June cotton acreage report, called at the Department of Agriculture today and were in lengthy conference with the Secretary. At the conclusion of the conference Secretary Wilson gave out the following statement:

"The Department of Agriculture has determined that the statistical board shall meet Wednesday July 26th. to consider whether revision of the June cotton acreage should be made from existing data or from a new inspection, and make public their findings or estimate at 12 o'clock on that date or the earliest convenient date thereafter."

The cotton men informally discussed the question of ordering a new report. No representations of inaccuracy were made against the June report and the members of the delegation appeared satisfied with the decision of the Secretary announced in the statement issued. The suggestion was made that a weekly report of condition of cotton should be issued but it was not urged upon the Department. It was said that most of the cotton men realized that more frequent reports cannot be had under the present appropriation for gathering crop statistics.

THE BENNINGTON DISASTER.

List of Dead 58, Wounded 46, and Uninjured 92.

San Diego, Ca., July 24.—All men connected with the United States gunboat Bennington at the time of the fatal boiler explosion in San Diego harbor, were accounted for to-day. Exploration of the vessel's hold continues as it is rapidly emptied of water. The summary of the situation to-day is:

Dead 58, wounded 46, uninjured 92, desertion, 1. Total number of crew before accident 197. C. A. Mumper was found alive and uninjured to-day, blotting out anw missing list. The identity of the four men classed as unidentified dead was established to-day. Seven injured men are still in a critical condition:

The Bennington's interior presents a less disordered appearance to-day. Boiler B, which exploded first, is seen to have moved fifteen feet aft, and the two evploded boilers are jammed jammed against a steel bulkhead. In the starboard storeroom is a mass of water soaked and ruined ship goods, which will be taken out when the Iris arrives from San Francisco to take aboard what is good of the stores. A board has been appointed, consisting of Commander Young and Lieutenants Yates and Wade to attend the work of condemning the stores. The condition in the engineroom is such that it will probably take two days to discover the full amount of the damage there. Commander Young and the officers of the ship began an investigation into the cause of the explosion this afternoon.

Washington, July 24.—Secretary Bonaparte in a statement made upon his arrival at the Navy Department to-day, said the public may rest assured that the Bennington disaster will be thoroughly investigated and that whatever action the results of the investigation may show to be proper, will be taken by the Department promptly and affectually. The Secretary added:

"Beyond this I can say nothing at present because as yet the material facts are but very imperfectly understood. I deprecate the publication of conjectures or speculations as to the possible causes of the disaster. But I think this Department may reasonable ask of an indulgent public that it be trusted to do what is needed under the circumstances hereafter shown to have existed whether as a matter of justice toward individuals or of precaution against similar misfortunes in the future."

SEVENTEEN CASES OF YELLOW FEVER

Situation at New Orleans—Six Deaths—All Fever Cases to Be Placed Under Nets.

New Orleans, July 24.—Tonight Mayor Behrman, in view of the presence of yellow fever in New Orleans, issued a proclamation to the people of New Orleans urging them to heed the advice of the health authorities relative to the sanitation of their premises and calling special attention to the necessity of screening houses and placing nets over cisterns or pools of water which might breed mosquitoes. This proclamation was also signed by the president of the State Board of Health, by the president of the city health board, by Surgeon White of the Marine Hospital Service and by the advisory committee of the New Orleans Parish Medical Society.

At a meeting of the State Board of Health today it was decided, in response to the numerous requests for information from the parish health officers, to prepare and send out a detailed statement of the situation. This will include an official statement that up to date there have been 17 cases of yellow fever in New Orleans and six deaths from yellow fever. The quarantine regulations suggested by the meeting of citizens requiring six days detention for all vessels from ports subject to yellow fever were adopted after a heated discussion.

Notification was received at noon from Dr. Hunter of the Mississippi board that he had proclaimed quarantine against the whole State of Louisiana because Louisana had not quarantined against New Orleans. This question was discussed and it was decided not to quarantine the State against the city.

The New Orleans Parish Medical Society has sent out a circular to all physicians urging them to make immediate reports to the board of health of all fever cases, whether yellow fever or not, and that immediately on discovering the disease the patient be put under a mosquito net.

Surgeon White is perfecting arrangements for the establishment of detention camps for the different railroads. Lieutenant Colonel Maus, U. S. A., came today to investigate the situation at Jackson barracks. He found no cases of illness and recommended against removing the troops at the present time. He urged, however, that the men be kept within the grounds.

Alabama's Quarantine.

Montgomery, Ala., July 24.—Governor Jelks, of Alabama, issued an amendment to his quarantine proclamation of Saturday late this afternoon. This last official decree to be promulgated includes in the list of places quarantined against all stations on the Louisville and Nashville railroad between New Orleans and the Alabama State Line.

Among the towns under the Alabama ban are Biloxi, Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Ocean Springs and several other resorts where Alabamians go in large numbers during the Summer, and it is believed that many from this city and the State at large will necessarily be caught by the issuance of the proclamation.

Fever Reported on Ship at Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., July 24.—There is a rumor current that two of the crew of the Columbia which unloaded fruit last night and returned immediately was taken off the vessel when she arrived inward bound at the quarantine station thirty miles below Mobile, with yellow fever. Dr. Henry Goldthwaite, health and executive officer of the quarantine board of Mobile Bay, went down there today but has not returned. Dr. Goode, president of the board, when asked for information tonight said he had heard nothing from Dr. Goldthwaite as to the nature of the illness. It is reported one of the men died but this lacks confirmation.

EX-CHIEF ENGINEER WALLACE.

Rumor That He Will Be President of The S. A. L.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Atlanta, Ga., July 23.—The Constitution to-morrow will say: "A persistent rumor is afloat in railroad circles here to the effect that John Finley Wallace, formerly chief engineer of the Panama Canal, is to be made president of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad. The report cannot be verified, ut comes from an apparently thoroughly reliable source.

Norfolk, Va., July 23.—No confirmation or denial of the report that former Chief Engineer John F. Wallace, of the Panama Canal commission, is to be made president of the Seaboard Air Line system, can be secured here to-night. This report was circulated here immediately upon Mr. Wallace's resignation from the commission and was not believed in railway circles. About the same time gossip also linked Paul Morton's name with the office.

PAUL JONES' BODY LANDED

IMPOSING HONORS TO ASHES

French Cruiser and Marines Participate in Demonstration—Minute Guns Fired by Every Ship as Body Landed.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Annapolis, Md., July 24.—The body of John Paul Jones is now in the possession of the United States. Today it rests on American soil, housed temporarily in an unpretentious vault in the center of the grounds of the Naval Academy and near the unfinished chapel in whose crypt later it is to find honored repose, a perpetual inspiration to the young men of the nation here trained in the arts of naval warfare.

The body was removed from the Brooklyn to the naval tug Standish and from that to a float moored to the shore where stalwart jackies placed it in a hearse, which was escorted by an imposing cortege of marines, jackies and midshipmen, in which the French nation participated with a landing party of officers and men from the French cruiser Jurien de La-Graviere.

The Standish came alongside and made fast to the Brooklyn shortly before 9 o'clock. The body of the dead admiral was hoisted from its position on the "half deck" by a boat crane carried to the starboard side where another crane lowered it to the after deck of the tug. Sixteen jackies went over the side of the Brooklyn and placed the coffin on a catafalque, where it was covered by the flag of General Porter, over which was spread the union jack. Then the jackies stood at attention in a square around the bier. The unsheathed sword of John Paul Jones, now the property of Commander Nicholson, of the cruiser Tacoma, was laid on the coffin under constant guard of a marine.

Rear Admiral Sigsbee and his ship officers, came aboard the tug and the start for the shore was begun. The tug took its course down between the two columns of cruisers and battleships and as it was making this run, minute guns from every ship gave the fifteen gun salute.

As the body was being transferred the marines of the squadron constituting one battalion and two battalions of jackies were sent ashore in small boats towed by launches. These reached shore first and formed an imposing guard drawn up in double line on the seawall of the basin of the Naval Academy.

The Standish landed at a barge over which an arch of American and French flags had been designed. A hearse drawn by four black horses was in waiting, on either side of which were the honorary pall-bearers, on the right side being Rear Admirals Sands and Captains Tilley and Reeder, of Admiral Sigsbee's fleet; on the left, Captain Gervais, of the French cruiser and Rear Admiral Davis, and Captain Taussig. At the extreme right of the line was the Naval Academy band, which rendered Chopin's funeral march as the body was placed in the hearse.

Around the vault a huge square was formed on three sides by the sailors and marines, the fourth being occupied by the hearse and midshipmen. After the body had been removed from the hearse and placed on a car which rested on a temporary wooden truck leading to the vault, Chaplain Clark of the Naval Academy, assisted by Fleet Chaplain Bayard, read a portion of the Episcopal funeral service and offered prayer.

CZAR TO MEET THE KAISER.

Suddenly Leaves Peterhof to Confer With German Ruler.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—Midnight.—On the eve of the peace conference and with a suddenness already disconcerting diplomatic and court circles, the Emeperor left Peterhof today on board the imperial yacht Polar Star for a conference with Emperor William, who is cruising on the Hohenzollen in Finnish waters.

The action of Emperor William in seeking a conference at this moment is generally interpreted as an assurance of his moral support of Russia in the coming pour parlers at Washington and Portsmouth, and to show that German participation in the recent Japanese loan was not a mark of the alienation of German sympathies from Russia.

The Ice Famine.

The big steel main shaft for the independent Ice factory arrived Sunday night and, thanks to the diligence and hard work of the Cape Fear Machine Co., the big plant was running again by yesterday noon and the end of the ice shortage is in sight. The first "charge" of ice, however, will not come off until to-morrow noon as 48 hours is required for the manufacture upon starting up the machinery anew. The big steel shaft was brought all the way by express, the charges on it being $156. It was the quickest route, however, and the factory had to be put to work. Small shipments of ice were received from Newbern and Rocky Mount Sunday to partially relieve the situation.

ARRESTED NEGRO BURGLAR.

Thief Who Entered Residence of Mrs. Shepard Saturday Afternoon.

Mr. B. O. Stone, who lost a lot of silverware valued at about $75, in the burglary of the residence of Mrs. Henrietta Shepard Saturday afternoon, an account of which appeared in these columns Sunday morning, yesterday got on track of the burglar through Mr. W. J. Davis, who has a store on Second, between Market and Dock streets, and to whom the negro, within less than an hour after the robbery, sold a set of fine silver spoons for 25 cents. Mr. Davis read of the burglary in the paper and took the spoons to Mr. Stone, who easily identified them by the initials on the handle and secured a warrant from Justice Furlong for the arrest of the negro, who was found to be Willie Jones, believed to have been implicated in several house robberies with Hunch Hullen, a noted thief, a few weeks ago. Constable Savage lay in wait for Jones at Davis' livery stables, on Market street and arrested him by slipping in from the rear. A pistol stolen at the same time was recovered but the other property cannot be found in spite of the fact that Mr. Stone and Constable Savage searched several houses frequented by the negro. Jones will be given preliminary trial by Justice Furlong Wednesday at 3 P. M.

MANUFACTURE OF ICE.

The following from the Richmond Times-Dispatch is interesting:

"There have been numerous statements printed recently as to the cost per ton of manufacturing ice. A man who is in a position to know stated that ice could be manufactured here at from ninety cents to one dollar per ton. It is sold at $10 per ton at retail and at slightly less than this in large quarantities. If those figures as to cost of manufacture be correct, then the profit in ice, even allowing for loss in selling, labor of delivery and shrinkage in melting, is larger than has been generally supposed. There are reports in circulation that another large ice manufactory may be established in this city soon, but the statements are not sufficiently definite to warrant and details."

The Star does not believe that ice can be made at a cost of from "ninety cents to one dollar a ton —certainly, not in Wilmington. But there must be a pretty stiff profit in ice sold at $10 per ton, or fifty cents per 100 pounds, retail.

ATTRACTIONS AT LUMINA.

Another Bowling Contest—Moving Picture Show—Concerts.

The Consolidated Company will offer another prize of $5 this week for the highest score made on the alleys at Lumina between now and Saturday night. As there were several of the high men who could not enter the contest last Saturday night the company has decided to give the prize to the one making the highest score during the week.

The moving picture show made such a decided hit with the passion play that it has been decided to keep it on for the remainder of this wek in order to give every one a chance to see the wonderful exhibition. The price of admission is 25 cents.

The Sunday concert given by Lumina Orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Jno. F. Kneissell, was the best heard this season and especially fine was the descriptive piece "The Hunting Scene."

Arrested a Highwayman.

Deputy Sheriff J. M. Wade late yesterday afternoon on lower Market street arrested a negro charged with the highway robbery of Chas. Leslie, a young white man on the night of July 3rd. Leslie had since been looking for the negro but did not lay eyes on him until yesterday. A warrant was sworn out before Justice Furlong, the negro was pointed out to the officer, arrested and locked up. Mr. Leslie said the negro followed him from Seventh and Chesnut to Seventh and Dawson streets; on a dark corner threw him down, took his pistol away from him and commanded him to give up his money which the white man was compelled to do. The amount was about $2.50. The negro will be tried before Justice Furlong at noon to-day.

Shark Attacked Bather.

A shark made its appearance among a number of surf bathers in front of the Ocean View Hotel at Wrightsville Beach late Sunday afternoon, causing pandemonium for a short while. The big fish attacked young Mr. Ludie Croom and delivered him a severe blow across the breast with his tail, splitting the bath suit, but all the bathers got ashore without more than a very bad fright. The shark came very close in shore and was seen by several of the bathers.
